Position: Outside Sales Engineer

We are looking for a technical sales person to sell into the Control and Instrumentation markets. Our focus is to bring value to our customers in application expertise along with 'best of breed' industrial control products and solutions. We have been in the Rocky Mountain Region for over 30 years and have shown successful growth over that period of time.

A candidate with 3-5 years of sales or system integration experience and some market knowledge will make an excellent addition to our staff. The successful candidate should have a technical background to effectively sell plant floor solutions both hardware and software. Please refer to our web page at www.tmmi.com for additional information about the lines that we represent and our locations.

We offer health, dental, as well as an unparalleled Pension and Profit Sharing program that can set you up for a very comfortable early retirement.

To apply, please send your resume and cover letter to hr2015@tmmi.com
